Reclamation, Not Revenge.

Tom Tynan, Warden of the Colorado Penitentiary, does not believe in punishment for revenge. He is quoted as follows in an article in "Success Magazine":

"We've got to get away from the old 'get even' idea. Imprisonment isn't society's revenge upon the offending individual, but society's effort to correct and reclaim. The penitentiary that releases unbettered and unstrengthened men is not only a millstone about the taxpayer's neck, but a menace to the society that it is supposed to protect. Instead of sending broken, revengeful men back into the world, in no wise reformed, but simply resolved to greater cunning, we must send back mended men, eager and willing to be of use. Reclamation—not further damnation."

"The penitentiary should be the last resort. Many a man is doing time when justice would have been better served had he been paroled from the bench. The trial judge now has the power to parole in misdemeanor cases. This law should be extended so as to take in felonies. What if a man has stolen to get medicine for a sick wife? I have a fellow who's doing three years for that very thing. What if there is technical guilt without criminal intent? What if it is a first offense attended by unusual or mitigating circumstances? Right there—in the court room—is where such men should be given another chance. What's the danger? The sentence hangs over them and they live under the eye of the law. If they fail to make good, or if it turns out that confidence has been falsely reposed, they can be rearrested and imprisoned without further proceedings."

Romance in a Bottle.

A romantic love affair that had its beginning only a few months ago resulted in the marriage yesterday afternoon of Orr L. Critchfield, of Chicago, and Miss Pearl Rose, of Lawrenceburg. While working at the bottling house of a plant of the Kentucky Distillery and Warehouse Company, near Lawrenceburg, Miss Rose wrote her name and address on one of the bottles. A short while after she received a letter from the young man who a few days ago escorted her to the altar.

A Record Breaker.

The tallest building in the world is now in process of erection in New York. It will be fifty-five stories high and it will tower 750 feet above the sidewalk. All the metal columns and girders are enclosed in hollow concrete blocks and the floors and partitions are made of the same. Thus a big fire in one room would have but little effect in the one adjoining, architects say that such a building will last forever.

Shoots Man Who Robbed Friend.

George Longnecker shot and fatally wounded Longnecker, aged eighteen, of Dayton, Ky., near the former's home in Mason county, Friday night. Insko and a pal, who escaped, had held up and robbed Tim Ryan and wife, who were on their way home from church. Ryan went to Longnecker's home and the two started out to hunt for the highwaymen. A short distance from the house they met them, Insko calling to them to throw up their hands. Instead, Longnecker shot him with a shotgun, Insko dying Saturday morning in the county jail at Maysville.

Cattle Poisoned.

Joseph Gregg, a prominent farmer of the Rutland neighborhood, Harrison county, lost several head of stock, the result of Paris green poisoning, and more are sick from the drug.

A post-mortem showed a quantity of Paris green in the animals' stomachs. A search was then made and a quantity of the poison was found scattered about over the pasture. It was evident it had been put there with criminal intent, and as yet no clew has been secured as to who the guilty are.

Important Tax Decision Rendered.

Judgment of the Jefferson court in the case of Kentucky Lands Investment Company against Charles F. Fitch and others was reversed by the Appellate court last week and remanded for further proceedings.

Following a sale by the State of a certain lot in Louisville for taxes, the city of Louisville set up a claim for taxes from 1894 to 1910, and attached the validity of the sale, and asked that the deed from the State Auditor be canceled. The lower court dismissed the petition. In reversing the court below the Appellate court says:

"There is every reason why the State and the sound policy of the law would require that she lend her aid to the city in the collection of its revenue rather than attempt to defeat it in its collection. Where a sale is made by the city, the validity of the lien of the State, county and taxing district is in no wise impaired, and where the sale is by the State the validity of the city's lien for taxes due thereon is unimpaired."

Morgan Men May Meet at Lexington.

The annual reunion of Morgan's Men at Parks Hill, Nicholas county, which has been held for a number of years, may not be held this year, it is said. Col. Green Keller, who was a member of that command and a member of the Monument Committee, says they will probably not meet at Parks Hill this year, as it is desired to make the meet at Lexington, when the Morgan monument is unveiled, the greatest gathering of Morgan's Men held since the war. He says, however, that his statement is not authoritative, but that the Parks' Hill reunion will probably not be held.

Heavy Losses from Sheep-Killing Dogs.

Dogs are again playing havoc with sheep and lambs in Nicholas county and a number of farmers report heavy losses, and a number of new claims have been filed. It now seems certain that claimants will not realize over 20 or 25 cents on the dollar on their claims owing to the fact that the amount of claims amount to more than twice as much as the amount realized from dog taxation.

Old Settlers' Picnic.

The old settlers of Nicholas county will hold their annual meeting at the courthouse in Carlisle Saturday, June 24, and the day will be observed as a homecoming day for former citizens of the county. The meeting was called by President Horace M. Taylor and Secretary Green R. Keller.

Has Souvenir of Lake Erie Battle.

Levi Trotter, who was formerly Mayor of the neighboring town of Millersburg, but who is now a resident of Lexington, has in his possession a cane made from the wood taken from Commodore Perry's flagship, the "Lawrence," which was made famous by the battle of Lake Erie September 10, 1813.

The ship was dismantled July 4, 1858, and soon after the cane was made in Indiana and presented to William Nunn, of Millersburg, by a relative. Later it came into possession of Charles Clark, who married a daughter of Squire Nunn, and at Mr. Clark's death, his son, William, sold the cane to Mr. Trotter, who displays it with just pride as a relic of the stormy times in the early history of our country.

The wood of which the cane is made is live oak, the handle is of ivory, and three thin silver plates bear the following inscription: "Wood taken from the flagship Lawrence, July 4, 1858" Commodore O. H. Perry's victory on September 10, 1813. "We have met the enemy and they are ours." These words are inscribed in the ivory handle: "S. L. N. to Wm. Nunn."

Was Too Suspicious.

An Albanian youth named Brahmo-vitch, who is a stranger to the customs of civilization, arrived in Belgrade recently and shot a new acquaintance immediately after an introduction, having mistaken an attempt to shake hands for an attempt to snatch the weapons in his belt.

Important Alaskan Industry.

Alaska's fishing industry, next in importance to mining, gives employment to 12,588 persons, of whom 2,823 are natives. In the last five years the territory has sent us a wealth of $43,000,000 in salmon alone. The total output of fish in 1910 was worth $11,181,388.

Improved Sewing Cabinet.

A sewing cabinet spacious enough to hold everything a seamstress may need in her work, yet which folds up like a screen and can be carried by handles has been invented by a Missourian.

Cough Cure.

If you can stand the odor, a bad cough can often be cured by five drops of kerosene taken on a lump of sugar. If this sounds too horrible, much the same effect is achieved by swallowing gasoline.
